Tec de Monterrey

Tecnológico de Monterrey has obtained 184th place in the world, as well as being #6 in Latin America and #2 in Mexico, according to the Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) World University Rankings 2024.

These are some of the most important rankings in the world because of their methodology and the volume of information processed to prepare them.

Among private universities, the Tec continues to be the #1 university in Mexico and #29 in the world, climbing one place from last year.

This year, 2,963 universities from around the world were ranked, of which 1,503 made the list of the top academic institutions from 104 countries, 32 of these being from Mexico.

Evaluation criteria for the rankings

British evaluation firm QS included three new metrics in these rankings:

Sustainability, Employment Outcomes, and International Research Network.

The weighting of the total for existing indicators was adjusted as follows:

- Academic Reputation (30%)
- Citations per Faculty (20%)
- Employer Reputation (15%)
- Employment Outcomes (5%)
- Faculty-Student Ratio (10%)
- International Faculty Ratio (5%)
- International Student Ratio (5%)

- International Research Network (5%)
- Sustainability (5%)

The Tec's strengths

Neil Hernández, Director of Research at the Tec's Office of the Vice President of Research, stressed that the institution's strongest indicators in this year's rankings were: Employer Reputation, Employment Outcomes, and Academic Reputation.

- Employer Reputation

This is Tec de Monterrey's best-scoring category, where it went from 43rd to 28th place in the world, climbing 15 places from last year.

- Employment Outcomes

This is a new criterion for this year's rankings, where the Tec reached 41st place.

"Employment Outcomes is a new indicator that reflects the ability of institutions to guarantee a high level of employability for their graduates, while shaping future leaders who make an impact in their respective fields.

"The fact that we were ranked 41st in the world the first time this indicator was presented shows our international recognition," explained Hernández.

- Academic Reputation

In the category of Academic Reputation, the institution climbed 7 places, going from 164th to 157th place.

- The other indicators

Here's how Tec de Monterrey stands on the other indicators in these rankings:

- Faculty-Student Ratio: 222nd place
- Sustainability: 223rd
- International Faculty Ratio: 469th place
- International Research Network: 618th place
- International Student Ratio: 681st place
- Citations per Faculty: +701st place
